

this spring after 33 years of honorable service to his state and nation.

His steady leadership and hard work earned First Sergeant Parker the respect of his peers and his subordinates throughout the Mississippi National Guard. He is credited with raising the strength level of his unit by more than 50 percent after it was reorganized. His technical, administrative, and leadership skills have been key factors in the company's consistently high performance ratings over the years. First Sergeant Parker has also led by example. In each of the last 14 Army physical fitness tests, he has scored more than 300 point maximum.

His commanding officer said there is no better soldier anywhere in the Mississippi National Guard, citing his positive attitude and willingness to go beyond the call of duty in support of his fellow Guardsmen and their mission.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues join me in saluting First Sergeant Charles Parker for a job well done.

IN HONOR OF COMDR. DONNA M. LOONEY FOR HER APPOINTMENT TO THE COMMAND OF THE U.S.S. PLATT

HON. NANCY L. JOHNSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 26, 1998

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride and appreciation that I rise today to express my congratulations to CDR Donna Looney for her appointment to the command of the U.S.S. Platt by the United States Navy tomorrow evening.

CDR Looney, originally from Simsbury, Connecticut, recently graduated from the U.S. Naval War College, in Newport, RI, and is being honored with the command of a U.S. Navy fleet oiler, the U.S.S. Platt. As one of the few female pioneers to command a Naval ship, CDR Looney has set herself apart as a fine role model for young women as well as fellow Naval officers. For her leadership and tremendous achievements in the United States Navy, CDR Looney deserves our praise and recognition.

Today, I congratulate CDR Donna Looney for her appointment as commander of the U.S.S. Platt and I commend her for the hard work and sacrifices which were instrumental in attaining this meritorious position in the United States Navy.

IN HONOR OF SUNIL AGHI, AN ADVOCATE FOR THE INDO-AMERICAN COMMUNITY

HON. LORETTA SANCHEZ

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 26, 1998

Ms. SANCHEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor an advocate of the Indo-American community, Mr. Sunil Aghi. Mr. Aghi is founder and President of the Indo-American Political Foundation, an organization dedicated to bringing Indo-Americans into the mainstream political process. Through this Foundation, Mr.

Aghi hopes to bring full equality and participation of minorities and other ethnic groups into the political process. Mr. Aghi has also worked hard to ensure that Indo-Americans are fully represented in political and elected offices. He understands that Indo-Americans should have their own voices in all levels of government to ensure that the needs of the Indo-American community are met by our elected officials.

Mr. Aghi looks forward to joining forces with other organizations which represent diverse ethnic groups to form coalitions that will give an even stronger voice to new citizens who are eager to learn more and become involved in American politics.

But the most important work that Mr. Aghi does, in his work as founder of Thank You America. Thank You America is an organization dedicated to providing food and clothing to the homeless of Orange County on Thanksgiving Day. Each year this group assists over 500 homeless individuals and families with warm meals and clothing during the holidays. Mr. Aghi is planning to expand Thank You America's services to help needy families year round.

Mr. Aghi truly understands the meaning of thanks. His tireless efforts are a model for all to follow. Mr. Aghi gives thanks everyday to America through his unselfish work, and I thank Mr. Aghi for his vital role in our communities.

IN HONOR OF WOMEN OF GREAT ESTEEM

HON. NYDIA M. VELÁZQUEZ

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 26, 1998

Ms. VELÁZQUEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Women of Great Esteem, an organization that supports the advancement of women in a multi-cultural environment. This worthy group assists the homeless, works to combat violence in the community, provides educational training, and conducts AIDS outreach. Each year, Women of Great Esteem honors women who embody these goals of service to others. This week, seven women who have dedicated their lives to the community will be honored at the Second Annual Women of Great Esteem Awards.

The Honorable Una S. Clarke, Dr. Rosalind Jeffries, Dr. Karen McCarthy Brown, Rev. Barbara Pennant, Ms. Waveny Joseph, Ms. Alourdes C. Lovinski and Ms. Ivonne Mercado-Ford each deserve our sincerest thanks for their commitment to bettering the lives of women everywhere. They have challenged the community to recognize the appreciate diversity and affirm the gifts, talents and dignity of all women.

It is a great pleasure to congratulate these women for their achievement, and I too express my gratitude to Women of Great Esteem for their valuable service.

COMMENDING DR. PANAYOTIS IATRIDIS

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 26, 1998

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is my distinct pleasure to commend Dr. Panayotis Iatridis, a decorated physician who has devoted his life to the scholarly pursuit of medical education, on his 23rd anniversary as Assistant Dean and Director of the Northwest Center for Medical Education at the Indiana University School of Medicine. In honor of his 23 years of outstanding service, the Advisory Council for the Northwest Center for Medical Education will host a recognition dinner on the evening of Saturday, March 28, 1998, at the Radisson Hotel at Star Plaza in Merrillville, Indiana.

On July 1, 1975, Dr. Iatridis was named Director of the Northwest Center for Medical Education, where he had served as Associate Professor and Director of the Physiology Course for medical students since 1972. During his 25 years with the Northwest Center, he has been integrally involved in every aspect of its operation, including the curriculum, administration, and service to students. As a member of the faculty, Dr. Iatridis organized and implemented a variety of courses, seminars, educational programs, and conferences for medical students, graduate students, post-doctoral trainees, faculty, and physicians in Northwest Indiana. Perhaps Dr. Iatridis' most noteworthy contribution to the Northwest Center's curriculum came in 1990, with his development and implementation of the "Regional Center Alternative Pathway", which is the educational program for first- and second-year medical students. Dr. Iatridis is also responsible for all administrative and academic affairs of the Northwest Center, and he has devoted much of his time to assisting medical students through different aspects of counseling and advising, including pre-medical student counseling and research project advising.

In addition to his dedicated work with the Indiana University School of Medicine, Dr. Iatridis has utilized his talents for the betterment of the Northwest Indiana community. Some of the organizations he has served include the City of Gary Economic Development Commission, the Gary Community School Corporation, the Lake and Porter County Medical Society Care of the Indigent Committee, and the Northwest Indiana Forum Foundation. Dr. Iatridis has also served as a board member of the Porter County Mental Health Association, Vice-Chairman of the Lake County Community Health Association, Chairman of the Lake County Medical Advisory Committee of the Community Health Association, the Program Committee of the Gary Rotary Club, and the Porter Starke Infection Control Committee.

Dr. Iatridis has received numerous prestigious awards, honors, and recognitions for his many professional and public service achievements. In recognition of his professional accomplishments, he received a Special Recognition for Outstanding Contributions to Medical Education by the Asian-American Medical Society, in 1991; a commendation from the Asian-American Medical Society for Outstanding Contribution to Medical Education in Northwest Indiana, in 1997; and the Wisdom Award of Honor from the Wisdom Society
